

GITARATTAN JINDAL PUBLIC SCHOOL

Rohini, Delhi-85

Date : 4th November'2011

Circular No: GRJPS/2011/71

Dear Parents

GRJPS aim 'Learning through fun' constantly strives to facilitate children to learn further in their pursuit of excellence. To provide students with diverse avenues to explore their potential and discover their true self, we send our students in number of contests.

We are pleased to inform you that as the school is a member of Times NIE, The Times of India Group, our students from classes VIII-XII got the opportunity to participate in an International Contest in association with YouTube.

Prize of the contest is - An educational and exciting trip to NASA or Yuri Gagarin's academy in Russia, where they will undergo training to be an Astronaut/Cosmonaut.

The Rules & Regulation for students to participate are as follows:

- Register for the space lab contest, after which an email of approval will be sent to the provided parent's email-id.
- Once the parents' clicks on the 'I Accept' link in the email, the child's registration is complete.
- The child can participate as an individual or a team of up to 3 members.
- Then, the child or team has to make a 2 minute video on a science experiment that can be performed in space. This experiment can either be performed in the video or the entire experiment can be narrated.
- An individual or a team can make up to 3 different videos with 3 distinctively different ideas, whose duration should not exceed more than 2 minutes.
- Upload the videos on YouTube space lab through their YouTube account. (if kids don't have one, they can instantly make one. In the case of a team, the id should be made on the name of the team leader).
- The winning experiment will be performed in space and shown live on YouTube.

Students of class VIII-XII are eligible to participate. Last Date for uploading entries is 25th November'11. For further details visit the site- www.youtube.com/spacelab and click on 'The Competition'.

Hope for the zealous participation.

Regards

Principal

GITARATTAN JINDAL PUBLIC SCHOOL

Rohini, Delhi-85

Date : 4th November'2011

Circular No: GRJPS/2011/71

Dear Parents

GRJPS aim 'Learning through fun' constantly strives to facilitate children to learn further in their pursuit of excellence. To provide students with diverse avenues to explore their potential and discover their true self, we send our students in number of contests.

We are pleased to inform you that as the school is a member of Times NIE, The Times of India Group, our students from classes VIII-XII got the opportunity to participate in an International Contest in association with YouTube.

Prize of the contest is - An educational and exciting trip to NASA or Yuri Gagarin's academy in Russia, where they will undergo training to be an Astronaut/Cosmonaut.

The Rules & Regulation for students to participate are as follows:

- Register for the space lab contest, after which an email of approval will be sent to the provided parent's email-id.
- Once the parents' clicks on the 'I Accept' link in the email, the child's registration is complete.
- The child can participate as an individual or a team of up to 3 members.
- Then, the child or team has to make a 2 minute video on a science experiment that can be performed in space. This experiment can either be performed in the video or the entire experiment can be narrated.
- An individual or a team can make up to 3 different videos with 3 distinctively different ideas, whose duration should not exceed more than 2 minutes.
- Upload the videos on YouTube space lab through their YouTube account. (if kids don't have one, they can instantly make one. In the case of a team, the id should be made on the name of the team leader).
- The winning experiment will be performed in space and shown live on YouTube.

Students of class VIII-XII are eligible to participate. Last Date for uploading entries is 25th November'11. For further details visit the site- www.youtube.com/spacelab and click on 'The Competition'.

Hope for the zealous participation.

Regards

Principal